

Belle Époque Diamond And Platinum Heart Pendant And Chain, Circa 1910
£29,500.00

A Belle Époque diamond and platinum heart pendant and chain, set with an old-cut diamond, in the centre, in a rub over setting, with a surrounding cluster of pear shape petals, set with old-cut and smaller rose-cut diamonds, in grain settings, with an old-cut diamond set fleur-de-lys below, with a diamond set foliate design either side, forming an openwork heart, with millegrain edges, mounted in platinum, on a removable decorative chain of filigree links, with old-cut diamonds in square settings, connected with trace links, fastened with a bolt ring marked IRID PLAT, on a dropping, opening bail, circa 1910. The approximate total diamond weight is 12.00 carats.

Origin	American
Period	1910s
Style	Edwardian
Condition	Good
Materials	Platinum
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Main Gemstone Cut	Old Cut
Main Gemstone Carat	12.00ct

Dimensions

Heart length 45.3mm including bail, 36.3mm not including bail, width 34.5, chain approximately 470mm long

Antique ref: S251022P1