

SLIM GOLD SWISS QUARTER REPEATING CYLINDER £3,900.00

A large slim early 19th Century Swiss quarter repeating cylinder in a gold engine turned case. Keywind gilt Lepine calibre bar movement with suspended going barrel with polished steel stopwork. Plain sector shaped cock with polished steel regulator, polished steel endstone. Plain three arm gold balance with blue steel spiral hairspring. Polished steel cylinder, steel escape wheel. Push pendant quarter repeating on two polished steel gongs. White enamel dial with Arabic numerals, blue steel Breguet hands. Substantial engine turned 18 carat open face case with ribbed middle, gold push pendant, maker's mark "PG". Wound and set through the signed sprung gilt metal cuvette

Signed Mr Blanc Fils
Circa 1810
Diameter 58 mm

Period	19th Century
Condition	Very good
Materials	Gold
Carat for Gold	18 K

Antique ref: A10752