

Large Japanese imari baluster jar and cover, c.1700
POA

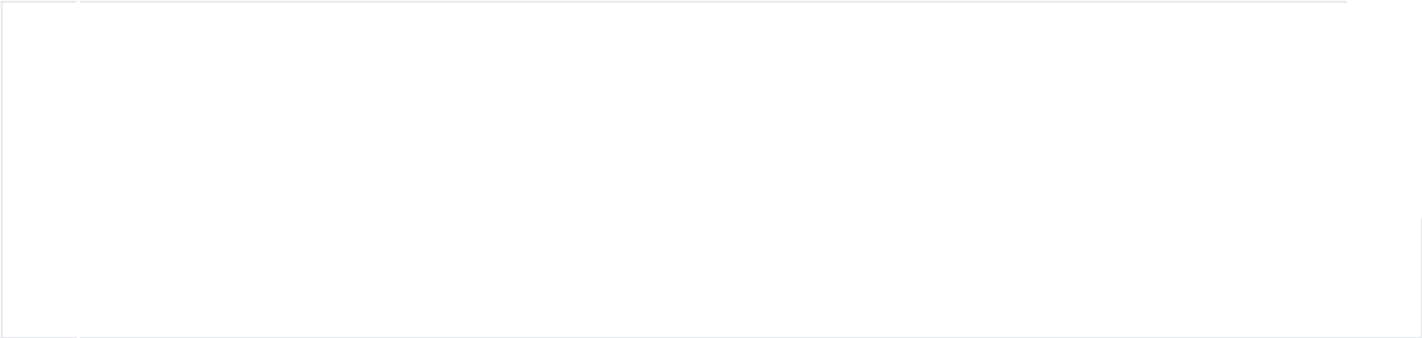

Large Japanese imari baluster jar and cover, c.1700, the jar and cover decorated with branches of flowering chrysanthemum and cherry blossom issuing from rockwork, the jar's shoulders decorated with ogee-shaped landscape cartouches against a ground of cherry blossom and crashing waves, the neck with a garland of stylized foliage and flower heads.

Height: 59cm. (23 1/4in.)

Condition: The cover with pieces out and re-stuck with a hairline and associated chip.

Material and Technique

Porcelain with polychrome decoration

Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Good
Dimensions	Height: 59cm. (23 1/4in.)

Antique ref: U102