

Chinese blue and white kraak double-gourd vase, Wanli (1573-1619) POA

Chinese blue and white kraak double-gourd vase, Wanli (1573-1619), the lower section decorated with shaped cartouches containing flowers issuing from, separated by horses flying above cloudscrolls, the upper section with panels containing jardinières and branches of fruit, the neck decorated with stiff leaves.

Dimensions:

Height: 30cm. (11 3/4in.)

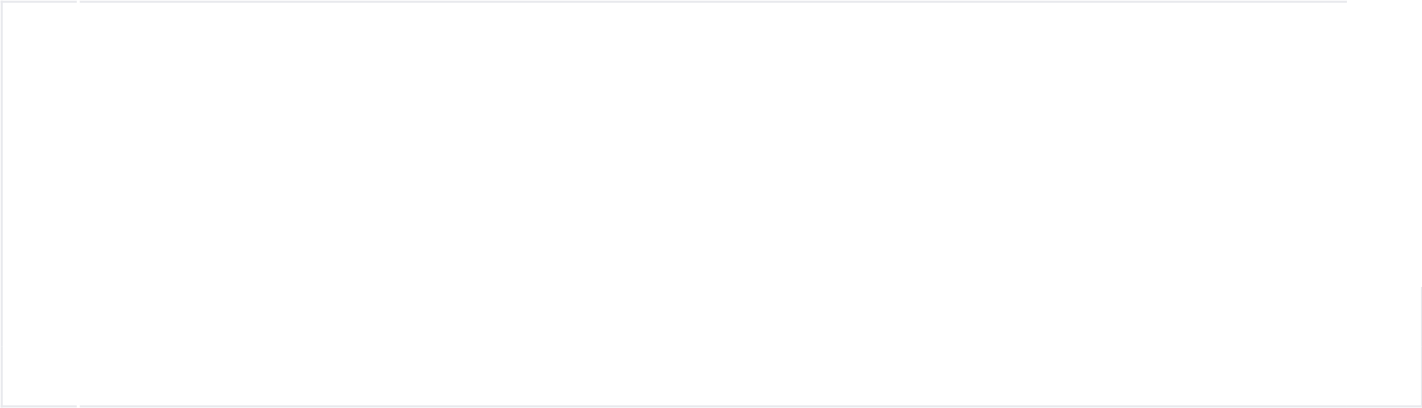

Condition:

Frits to rim, drill hole to base neatly restored.

Notes:

For a similar example see the Victoria and Albert Museum, No. C.1869-1921.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	16th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Height: 30cm. (11 3/4in.)

Antique ref: U438