

Large Meissen lobed dish, late 18th century POA

Large Meissen lobed dish, late 18th century, the lobed rim gilt edged with two scroll handles, the centre with floral sprays, the rim relief moulded in the Dulong pattern and four gilt-edged cartouches with floral sprays, purple floral spray to reverse with underglaze-blue cross swords mark to the base, incised numeral '54' to inner footrim, width: 43cm. (16 7/8 in.)

Condition: wear to gilding, some wear to enamels, glaze crack to rim

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration and gilt
Origin	German
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Width: 16 7/8 in. (43 cm.)

Antique ref: U559