

Chinese biscuit stand, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese biscuit stand, Kangxi (1662-1722), of rectangular form, decorated in overglaze enamels to the body with opposing grounds of prunus on cracked ice in aubergine and butterflies amongst sprays of peony and aster; the walls pierced with a ruyi-shaped opening, the top with alternating border panels of prunus against cracked ice and flowerheads with foliate scrolls.

Height: 15.5cm. (6 1/8 in.); diameter: 23.3cm. (9 1/8 in.)

Condition: Wear to enamel, frittling to rim

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Height: 15.5cm. (6 1/8 in.); diameter: 23.3cm. (9 1/8 in.)