

Chinese biscuit stand, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese biscuit stand, Kangxi (1662-1722), of rectangular form, decorated in overglaze enamels to the body with opposing grounds of prunus on cracked ice in aubergine and butterflies amongst sprays of peony and aster; the walls pierced with a ruyi-shaped opening, the top with alternating border panels of prunus against cracked ice and flowerheads with foliate scrolls.

Dimensions:

Height: 15.5cm. (6 1/8 in.); diameter: 23.3cm. (9 1/8 in.)

Condition:

Wear to enamel, fritting to rim

Material and Technique

Porcelain with enamel decoration

Origin

Chinese

Period

18th Century

Dimensions

Height: 15.5cm. (6 1/8 in.); diameter: 23.3cm. (9 1/8 in.)

Antique ref: U703