

Chinese seated biscuit figure of a court official, Kangxi (1662-1722) POA

Chinese seated biscuit figure of a court official, Kangxi (1662-1722), holding a black tablet of rank and seated on a high-backed chair, wearing a tall green hat and a robe decorated overall with a brilliant green glaze embellished with chrysanthemum flower heads in yellow and aubergine, the reverse with a sketched landscape and an aperture for the insertion of prayers.

Dimensions:

Height: 22.8cm. (9in.)

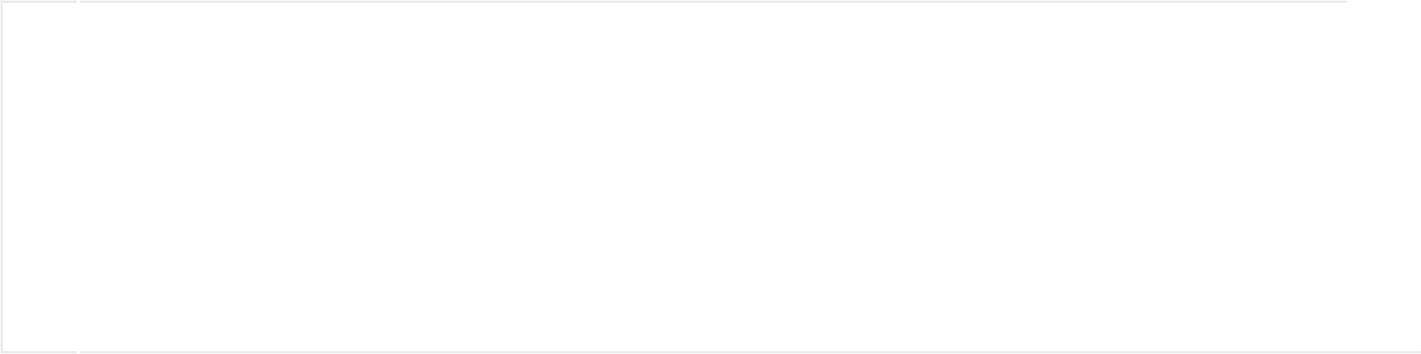

Condition:

Small chip to headdress and restoration to facial hair.

Provenance:

Previously purchased from Ralph Chait Gallery in 1988; also with an old inventory number '548581' etched in black ink to the rim of the base.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with enamel decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good

Dimensions

Height: 22.8cm. (9in.)

Antique ref: U719