

Lilly's Attic

Ruby Snake Ring in 9ct Gold date Sheffield 2004, Lilly's Attic since 2001 £825.00

The snake as a motif in jewellery dates back to ancient times. It is believed that the first examples were created by the Egyptians and Mesopotamians. The snake was often seen as a symbol of wisdom, healing, and transformation. In addition, it was thought to be a powerful protector against evil forces.

Origin	British
Period	21st Century and Contemporary
Condition	Excellent