

Chinese famille verte lobed teabowl and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese famille verte lobed teabowl and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722), of moulded form with fluted rims, the saucer decorated with a central floral medallion encircled by an iron-red geometric band with small alternating flowerheads, the rim with a garden fence, bamboo, prunus, chrysanthemum and flowers issuing from rockwork, the teabowl similarly decorated with garden fence, bamboo and blooms of chrysanthemum and prunus.

Diameter of saucer: 11.4cm. (4 1/2in.)

Condition: Frit to inside of foot of teabowl and minute frits to foot of saucer

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze polychrome enamel decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Diameter of saucer: 11.4cm. (4 1/2in.)

Antique ref: Q73