

Chinese rouge-de-fer moulded shell-shaped dish, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese rouge-de-fer moulded shell-shaped dish, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated in predominantly iron-red enamel with blue and gilt, painted with a central floral roundel and stems including chrysanthemum and lily, all within a geometric flowerhead band to the rim.

Diameter: 20 cm. (7 7/8in.)

Condition: Glaze loss on top inner rim of shell and shallow chip to rim

Material and Technique	Moulded porcelain with enamel and gilt decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Diameter	20 cm. (7 7/8in.)

Antique ref: W106