

Chinese Canton enamel tea bowl, 18th century
POA

Chinese Canton enamel tea bowl, 18th century, on a short foot with everted rim, decorated in enamels with large peony heads and scrolling foliage against a yellow ground, the foot encircled by a band of pink petals, the rim with a band of leiwen ('cloud and thunder') keyfret pattern, the interior well with a fruiting spray of peach, the base with a square seal.

Diameter: 6cm. (2 5/16in.)

Condition: Chip to enamel on the rim

Material and Technique	Canton enamel: metal base with enamel decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Diameter	6cm. (2 5/16in.)

Antique ref: W743