

A Victorian Fleur de Lys Diamond Brooch in High Carat Yellow Gold (tested) & Silver, English, Circa 1880
POA

A very beautiful Victorian Fleur de Lys Brooch in a muted tone of Silver tipped high Carat Yellow Gold (tested). The "Fleur de Lys" outline set with numerous single cut Diamonds with three larger graduated and claw set Diamonds to the central foliate relief.

In British heraldry the use of the Fleur de Lys in cypher often relates to a record of the family line dating back to 1415 and the Battle of Agincourt.
