

Pair of Chinese blue and white bottle vases, Kangxi (1662-1722) POA

Pair of Chinese blue and white bottle vases, Kangxi (1662-1722), of bulbous form with tall columnar necks, the bodies and necks decorated in bright underglaze cobalt blue with a continuous design of foliage and stylised flower heads; the shoulders with wide bands containing floral scrolls in white against a blue ground, the rims with narrow bands of either geometric hatch-pattern or half-prunus blossom against a wave-pattern ground, the feet with a double circle and bases marked 'G' in underglaze blue.

Dimensions:

Height of the taller: 19.4cm. (7? in.)

Condition: Good

Origin	Chinese
Period	17th Century
Style	Other
Condition	Excellent
Hallmark	'G'
Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Dimensions	Height of the taller: 19.4cm. (7? in.)

Antique ref: W749