

An Antique Malaysian/Malay Solid Silver Dish with Fine Foliate Engravings
£650.00

This antique solid silver dish was made in Malaysia during the late 19th Century.

A lovely design of fine hand engraved floral and foliate motifs makes for an excellent display piece as well as for usage with items such as sweets/nuts/jeweler dish etc.

The dish features a raised edge with an engraved border and further geometrically unique motifs of curling leaves and equally spaced flower designs. #
