

Chinese armorial coffee cup and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese armorial coffee cup and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated in underglaze cobalt blue and enamels in the imari palette with the arms of Walker (Argent on a chevron sable between three pellets as many crescents of the field); the central roundels surrounded by flowers and leafy branches issuing from long grass, the rims with a narrow gilt band, with the crest repeated four times of (The sun rising in clouds all proper) amongst scrolling leaves.

Dimensions:

Diameter of saucer approx. 12 cm. (4 3/4in.)

Condition:

Saucer has a faint hair-crack to the rim

Notes:

See Howard Chinese Armorial Porcelain, 1974, B2, p.177

Material and Technique	Porcelain with enamel and gilt decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Dimensions	Diameter of saucer approx. 12 cm. (4 3/4in.)

Antique ref: W654