

A large blue and white saucer dish, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

A large blue and white saucer dish, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated in underglaze cobalt blue with large fruiting boughs citrus and buddha's hand citron amongst foliage and small flying insects, the reverse with three sprays of peach and pomegranate; diameter: 33.8cm. (13 1/4in.), height: 7cm. (2 3/4in.); condition: chips and almost invisible hair-line to centre. For a similar dish in the Topkapi Saray, see R.Krahl, Plant Motifs of Chinese Porcelain, Orientations, June 1987, fig.74

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Diameter	Diameter: 33.8cm. (13 1/4in.), height: 7cm. (2 3/4in.)

Antique ref: W762