

Chinese canton enamel rectangular box and cover, Qianlong (1736-95) POA

Chinese canton enamel rectangular box and cover, Qianlong (1736-95), each of the four sides with ruyi-head cartouches containing sprays of flowers including peony, reserved against a pale blue ground with dense foliate scroll; the lid with sprays of peony within two bands in blue and pink, the latter with floral cartouches.

Condition: Some chips neatly restored

Material and Technique

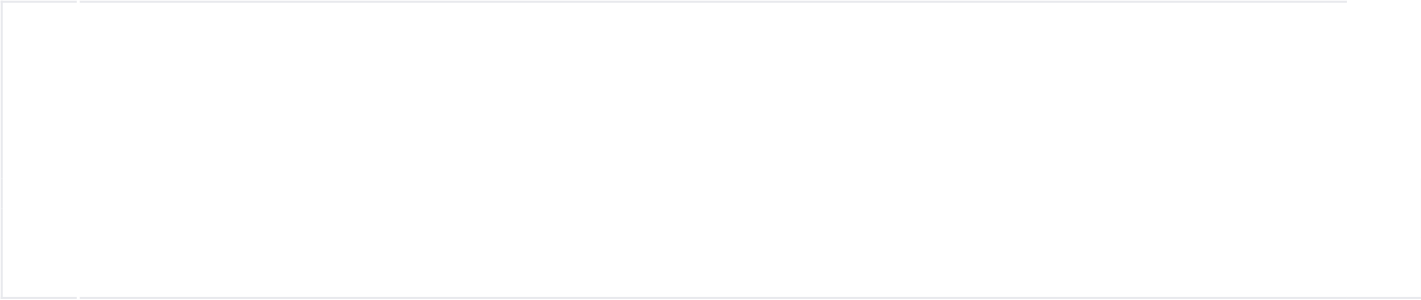

Metal with canton enamel decoration

Origin

Chinese

Period

18th Century

Condition

Good

Dimensions

Width 11.5cm. (4 1/2in.); height: 7cm. (2 3/4in. 7cm. Depth: 3 in. 7.5cm.

Antique ref: X229