

A continental silver ewer-shaped vinaigrette £1,600.00

A continental silver ewer-shaped vinaigrette, probably Maltese. Early 18th century, only marked with a later French control mark. The paneled sides engraved with flowers and fruit, and the front panel initialed "FET" above a scroll inscribed "VILA" in turn above a mask from which hang pendant fruit, domed covered, "S" scroll side handle, and hinged gilt grill pierced with leaves.

Origin	European Other
Period	18th Century
Style	Other
Condition	Excellent
Dimensions	Height: 4.5cm

Diameter

Weight: 18 grams

Antique ref: 10072