

Chinese Canton enamel tea canister, Qianlong (1736-95) POA

Chinese Canton enamel tea canister, Qianlong (1736-95), with chamfered corners, each of the four sides decorated with a panel containing various archaic burners and ritual vessels with coral, feathers and sceptres, against patterns of interlocking shapes in green and blue with cartouches of black foliate scroll, all within single blue lines to the rim and foot; the neck with further foliate scroll within a single pink line.

Dimensions:

Height: 9.3cm (3 5/8in.)

Condition:

Lacks cover; minor cracking and enamel loss to corners.

Material and Technique	Canton enamel
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Good
Dimensions	Height: 9.3cm (3 5/8in.)

