

Chinese blanc de chine libation cup, early Kangxi (1662-1722) or possibly late Ming
POA

Chinese blanc de chine libation cup, early Kangxi (1662-1722) or possibly late Ming, with gently flaring rim and upon an applied foot in the form of a twisted branch, decorated to either side in relief with applied boughs of flowering prunus

Diameter: 6.9 cm. (2 1/2in.); height: 5cm. (1 15/16in.)

Condition: Shallow chip to rim

Material and Technique	Blanc de chine porcelain with applied decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	17th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Diameter: 6.9 cm. (2 1/2in.); height: 5cm. (1 15/16in.)