

Chinese blue and white moulded teapot and cover, Kangxi (1662-1722) POA

Chinese blue and white moulded teapot and cover, Kangxi (1662-1722), with applied loop handle, the moulded body decorated with six panels containing flowering plants issuing from rockwork and grasses, the rim with a band of scroll decoration, the curved spout and tall handle decorated with wisps of cloud, the lid decorated with six radiating panels containing floral sprays

Dimensions:

Height: 17cm. (6 11/16 in.)

Condition:

Chip to spout and rim, fine crack to base of handle, small area of glaze loss to handle

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Chinese
Condition	Good
Dimensions	Height: 17cm. (6 11/16 in.)