

Pair of Japanese Imari lobed dishes, c.1720
POA

Pair of Japanese Imari lobed dishes, c.1720, decorated in the centre with a bird perched on rockwork, with a river and pine tree, the border with chrysanthemums and other flowers, with two lobed panels containing phoenixes, the reverse decorated with scrolling peonies.

Condition: Wear to gilding

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze blue and overglaze gilt and enamel decoration
Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Diameter	19cm. (7 1/2in.)

Antique ref: W415