

Pair of Japanese Imari lobed dishes, c.1720 POA

Pair of Japanese Imari lobed dishes, c.1720, decorated in the centre with a bird perched on rockwork, with a river and pine tree, the border with chrysanthemums and other flowers, with two lobed panels containing phoenixes, the reverse decorated with scrolling peonies

Dimensions:

Diameter: 19cm. (7 1/2in.)

Condition: Wear to gilding

| | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Material and Technique | Porcelain with underglaze blue and overglaze gilt and enamel decoration |
| Origin | Japanese |
| Period | 18th Century |
| Diameter | 19cm. (7 1/2in.) |

Antique ref: W415