

Chinese blue and white 'dancers and musicians' dish, Kangxi (1662-1722)

POA

Chinese blue and white 'dancers and musicians' dish, Kangxi (1662-1722), the central roundel painted with two musicians, playing the transverse flute (dizi) and Chinese lute (pipa) respectively, while two ladies-in-waiting dance, holding floral sprays aloft, in a fenced garden with overhanging maple and plantain tree; the border with five cartouches containing flowers against a diaper ground

Dimensions:

Diameter: 27.7cm. (10.15/16 in.)

Condition:

Good

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Chinese
Condition	Excellent
Diameter	27.7cm. (10.15/16 in.)

Antique ref: W385