

Chinese famille verte plate, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese famille verte plate, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated to the central roundel with a magnolia tree adorned with red and golden blooms, chrysanthemum and grasses growing at its base; the cavetto with four panels containing delicate floral sprays, against a red cell ground with flower heads, the rim with four alternating groups of flowers and grasses issuing from rockwork

Dimensions:

Diameter: 22.5cm. (8 7/8in.)

Condition:

One shallow chip to reverse of rim not visible from the front

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette
Origin	Chinese
Condition	Very good
Diameter	22.5cm. (8 7/8in.)

Antique ref: W383