

Japanese dish, Edo (1603-1868), circa 1700
POA

Japanese dish, Edo (1603-1868), circa 1700, decorated to the central roundel with four ho-ho birds; two perched upon a rocky outcrop, another two in flight, surrounded by peony heads and stylised foliage, the wide rim decorated in the kraak style with eight alternating panels containing flowers in bloom or precious objects, interspersed by pendant tassels.

Condition: Hairline across base

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Diameter	31.7cm. (12 1/2 in.)

Antique ref: W366