

Japanese blue and white charger, circa 1700
POA

Japanese blue and white charger, circa 1700, painted to the central roundel with a flowering cherry tree in a grove with birds perching and in flight, and winged insects, the cavetto with six panels containing birds amongst flowers including cherry, plum and peony, the reverse with five spur marks.

Diameter: 37 cm. (14 1/2in.)

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Diameter	37 cm. (14 1/2in.)

Antique ref: W361