

Chinese imari silver-metal mounted mustard pot and cover, 18th century POA

Chinese imari silver-metal mounted mustard pot and cover, 18th century, of globular form, decorated in underglaze blue and iron-red enamels, the body with large heads of peony amongst sprouting leaves, chrysanthemum and seed-pods, with a band of stiff leaves to the waisted foot and further flowerheads and foliage to the foot and lid.

Condition: Tiny glaze spot to lid, otherwise good but condition under mounts unknown

Material and Technique

Porcelain decorated in the Imari palette with silver-metal fittings

Origin

Chinese

Period

18th Century

Dimensions

Height: 12.5cm. (4 7/8in.)

Antique ref: W360