

Antique Seven Row Harem Ring With Amethyst, Peridot, Ruby, Pearl, Sapphire, Garnet, Emerald In Gold, Circa 1880 £7,000.00

An antique gemstone seven row harem ring, set with amethyst, peridot, ruby, pearl, sapphire, garnet, emerald and diamond, with alternating sets of coloured gemstones, in collet spitch settings and pairs of grain set rose-cut diamonds, in rectangular silver-upon-gold boxes, on narrow gold bands, clasped and hinged at the back, with a French owl import mark for 18ct gold, circa 1880.

The legend is that "harem" or "Turkish" rings, of several gemstone set bands, attached together with a bar, originated in the Ottoman Empire. The Sultan would give the ring to his favourite.

With thanks to Google.

Condition: Good, with wear to the gemstone facet edges
Approximate Weight: 8.07 grams

Origin	French
Period	Pre 1900
Style	Victorian
Condition	Good
Materials	Gold
Carat for Gold	18 K

Antique ref: S301023R2