

Head of a King of Judah, Paris,
France circa 1220-1230.
Musée Cluny - National du Moyen
Âge, Paris, Inventory no.: Cl. 22988.

Crowned man's head, France
Île-de-France, circa 1150 / 1175.
Musée du Louvre, Numéro
principal : RF 553.

Crowned man's head, France
Île-de-France, circa 1150 / 1175.
Musée du Louvre, Numéro
principal : RF 519.

Important stone head of an emperor. Northern France, 12th - 13th century.

£17,500.00

An important stone head of a classical emperor.

Northern France, late 12th - early 13th century.

The head measures 32 x 20 x 20cm and 35cm high including its metal display stand.

The stone head represents a Roman emperor wearing a laurel crown. The emperor with large almond shaped eyes, asymmetrically curly beard and wavy moustache, partially covering the corners