

Japanese Imari barber's bowl, c.1700
POA

Japanese Imari barber's bowl, c.1700, decorated with branches of peony and chrysanthemum with sprouting grasses issuing from rockwork, the wide rim with further peony and chrysanthemum gently curving with the bowl's edge; the reverse with meandering foliate scroll and flowerheads, the foot encircled by a swirling pattern in iron-red.

Condition: Two shallow drill holes for hanging

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze blue and overglaze enamel decoration in the Imari palette
Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Excellent
Diameter	27.2cm. (10 3/4in.)

Antique ref: X478