

SHAPIRO & Co
since 1979

Single stone Diamond Ring in 18ct Yellow/White Gold dated London 1963, SHAPIRO & Co since1979

£1,850.00

Q: Where did the tradition of engagement rings come from?

A: Anthropologists believe this tradition originated from a Roman custom in which wives wore rings attached to small keys, indicating their husbands' ownership. In 1477, Archduke Maximilian of Austria commissioned the very first diamond engagement ring on record for his betrothed, Mary of Burgundy.

Period	1960s
Condition	Excellent
Materials	Gold
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Carat for Gold	18 K
Main Gemstone Carat	0.60ct approximately
Hallmark	London 1963
Main Gemstone Cut	Brilliant Cut

Antique ref: SHAPIRO & Co