

Champlevé enamelled copper appliqué of a Saint. French, Limoges, 13th century.

£2,000.00

A champlevé enamelled copper appliqué of a Saint.

French, Limoges, 13th century.

Measures 6cm high excluding display stand.

The small three quarter length figure of a Saint is depicted wearing robes with hands crossed against his chest. The figure is applied to a fragment of the left arm of a processional cross decorated in white, blue, red, green and yellow enamels.

Antique ref: Champlevé enamelled copper appliqué of a Saint. French, Limoges, 13th century.