

Hamilton British Military W10-6645-99
£725.00

This Hamilton British Ministry of Defence wristwatch was produced for the RAF around 1975. Presented in fine working order and excellent all round condition for a military watch that has in all likelihood seen service. Fine working order.

Plexiglass has clear marks and damage to it, we have chosen to leave original but can be replaced.

36mm Stainless steel cushion case with fixed lug bars and original crown in place. The standard black dial with luminous hour markers in addition to Arabic numerals and a track running around the outside of the dial.

Dial stamped T for Tritium and with the MOD Broad Arrow stamped on the dial. Plexiglass and not considered waterproof.

Operating from an ETA 2750 calibre movement this is a manual wind watch.

Caseback stamped:
