

Chinese blue and white pedestal salt, Kangxi (1662-1722) POA

Chinese blue and white pedestal salt, Kangxi (1662-1722), of square form with waisted foot, decorated in underglaze cobalt blue to the top section with a fenced garden scene, depicting a young boy presenting a woman with a leafy sprig, underneath a flowering tree outside a pagoda entrance, the edges each with a lobed floral cartouche against a stippled ground with flower heads, the sides of the hollow base with ogee-shaped panels containing large lotus-style flower heads.

Dimensions:

Diameter: 7cm. (2 ³/₄in.)

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Diameter	7cm. (2 ³ / ₄ in.)

Antique ref: W805