

Jacques Lacloche Paris Jockey & Horse Brooch CHIQUE to ANTIQUE £2,495.00

Beautiful antique horse and rider brooch/pin by Jacques Lacloche, Cannes, Paris. Rider and horse in motion. Rider in a enamel red coat, white pants and green jockey colours in mid jump over a fence obstacle. Lecloche jewellery designers of Paris circa 1892. In 1912, four brothers opened a shop in New Bond Street in London creating luxurious, prestigious and innovative jewellery for Londons elite. Jacques Lacloche designed this particular brooch circa 1936. The hallmark is French, the eagle signifying 18ct gold (Yellow). It has the makers mark on the back 'Jacques Lacloche Paris Cannes'. Length 4.2 x width 2.4 x height x 0.8 cm. Weight 8.0 grams. In very good condition with patina commensurate with the age of this item. An excellent lapel brooch/pin. Contact us to chat more about this excellent antique pin.

Type
Brooch/Pin

Era
Mid Century

Gold Carat
18ct

Material
Yellow Gold

Origin	French
Period	1930s
Style	Mid-Century
Condition	Very good
Materials	Gold
Main Gemstone	Enamel
Carat for Gold	18 K
Hallmark	French. Eagle

