

Gold Charms in 9ct Gold date from 1960, Lilly's Attic since 2001
POA

Q: What is the history of charm jewellery?

A: Charms can be traced back to the Neolithic Period, when pieces of bone, shell, and wood were strung on leather into elaborate bracelets. Through the Bronze Age and Ancient Egypt, charms were used as amulets or talismans to ward off evil and bring good luck to the wearer.

|                       |           |
|-----------------------|-----------|
| Origin         | British   |
| Condition      | Very good |
| Materials      | Gold      |
| Carat for Gold | 9 K       |

Antique ref: Lilly's Attic - SHAPIRO & Co