

Rolex Datejust 16234 2004
£5,750.00

An extremely attractive and rare configuration Rolex Datejust 16234, its a bit more special that many others you will find for a number of reasons.

This model 16234 has a black dial with factory diamond hour markers set by Rolex, it comes as a complete collectors set and its on an Oyster bracelet.

Dated to 2004 by the 'F' serial number accompanying this watch is the original Rolex warranty papers with the initial sale logged in the UK. Inner and outer box, both generic and watch specific swing tag, calendar, wallet and manual.

36mm stainless steel case with a white gold fluted bezel. Silver crown that matches the hands and the outline to the diamond hour markers. Fitted to a Rolex Oyster bracelet to fit a wrist to 18cm with double folding clasp.

Having been through both our polisher and watchmaker its presented in exceptional condition and working at +1 second per day!

Operating from the classic and iconic 3135 Calibre automatic movement this watch has a power reserve of up to 42 hours. Sapphire scratch resistant crystal.

Having just passed through our watchmaker and polisher presented in exceptional condition and fine working order.

