

Thai bronze standing figure of Avalokitesvara, 8th century POA

Thai bronze standing figure of Avalokitesvara, 8th century, standing upright with her left arm outstretched and wearing an elaborate headdress.

Dimensions:

Height with stand: 10.5cm. (4 1/8in.)

Notes:

Avalokitesvara originated in India and represents the mortal Buddha of compassion and mercy. Buddhism and its iconography spread from India via travelling monks throughout Asia during the first century BC and was widely adopted by many diverse cultures.

Material and Technique	Bronze
Origin	Oriental Other
Period	15th Century and Earlier
Dimensions	Height with stand: 10.5cm. (4 1/8in.)

Antique ref: R33