

An Exquisite Pair of Cultured Pearl & Diamond Drop Earrings, Circa 1950. £12,450.00

An exquisite pair of Cultured Pearl and Diamond Drop "Dress" Earrings beautifully presented in 18ct. White Gold (tested), centrally set with (2) "Round Shaped" Cultured Pearls, surrounded by a Diamond Set Cluster which suspends an articulated and tapering Diamond set drop, which in turn suspends a Diamond capped "Drop Shaped" Cultured Pearl (2 in total).

These beautiful, perfect evening wear, Earrings have been examined by a Gemmologist and are accompanied by an independent report confirming that the (2) Round Shaped Cultured Pearls and the (2) "Drop Shaped" Cultured Pearls are of "Good" Lustre, Silver & Cream in Colour and measuring approximately 7.00 mm. & 9.00mm.". The Pearls are surrounded by (102) "Round Brilliant Cut" Diamonds which have been estimated as being of "4.40 Carats, G - H colour and VS - SI - VG Clarity".

These substantial "Dress Earrings", each have a 5.3 cm. drop overall and the 18ct White Gold sprung clip fastenings may easily be altered to post and butterfly settings if so required.

Circa 1950

Period	1950s
Condition	Very good
Materials	White Gold
Main Gemstone	Diamond

Main GemstoneCut Brilliant Cut

Main Gemstone
Clarity VS - SI - VG

Carat for Gold 18 K

Main Gemstone
Carat 4.40

Main Diamond
Colour G-H

Secondary
Gemstone Pearl

Secondary
Gemstone Cut Round Cut

Antique ref: 1987