

SASANIAN SILVER BOAT SHAPED VESSEL

£1,500.00

Ca. 224-651 AD, A silver boat-shaped vessel with an oval plan, sloping sides and rounded bottom. The Sassanian empire which ruled from Afghanistan to Iraq during the 3rd to 7th centuries AD. They are famed for their high quality ceremonial metalware, which was used both during banqueting and during religious rituals.

Material and Technique	Silver
Period	Other
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Size: L:50mm / W:185mm ; 215g

Antique ref: 1