

Large Japanese Kakiemon-style charger, c.1680-1700 POA

Large Japanese Kakiemon-style charger, c.1680-1700, painted in underglaze blue and bright overglaze enamels to the central roundel with a jardinière of flowering peony upon a garden balcony within concentric rings in iron red, the wide rim with two gnarled trees with stylised flowers and small sprays of bamboo, and two precious beribboned objects.

Dimensions:

Diameter: 42cm (16.5 in.)

Condition:

Rim section re-stuck, chip to rim

Notes:

See Ayers, John (1990). Porcelain for Palaces: The Fashion for Japan in Europe 1650-1750. Oriental Ceramic Society; p.127. Border similar to a blue and white plate (no.133) found at the Kakiemon kiln site.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with enamel decoration in the Kakiemon style
Origin	Japanese
Condition	Good
Diameter	42cm (16.5 in.)

Antique ref: W840