

Chinese blanc-de-chine whistle, 17th century
POA

Chinese blanc-de-chine whistle, 17th century, in the form of a Dutchman wearing a tricorn hat, cravat and buttoned jacket, sitting on a rock next to a hexagonal planter and rocky pillar, all on a hollow hexagonal base with incised cartouches containing animals and plants

Dimensions:

Height: 7cm. (2 3/4in.)

Condition:

Some chips; bird, shrub and vase missing

Material and Technique	Blanc de chine Dehua porcelain moulded figure
Origin	Chinese
Period	17th Century
Dimensions	Height: 7cm. (2 3/4in.)

Antique ref: Q815