

H. Stannava 19th Century Painting with rural village scenery
£875.00

This canvas painting from the 19th century portrays the serene existence of rural villagers. Within the scene, a man leads his donkey pulling a hay-filled cart, while a lady, adorned in vibrant red attire and holding a basket is walking in his direction. In the distance, another man guides his three sheep. The entire setting is imbued with the essence of autumn, evident in the landscape adorned with trees. The painting exudes a sense of tranquil daily life, capturing a moment where time seems to have come to a standstill, devoid of any dramatic disturbances.

Medium: Oil on canvas (the canvas was supplied by Charles Roberson, London)

Date: 1865

Dimensions:

Height - 40 cm;

Width - 49 cm;

Depth - 4.2 cm. (With frames)

Actual picture size: Height - 26.5 cm;

Width - 34.5 cm

Weight: 1,500 grams.

Frame: Housed within a period-appropriate gilt wooden frame.

Condition Report:

The painting under examination is in good condition. The canvas remains intact, otherwise, there are two mini punctures, and there are subtle indications of age-related wear, consistent with its 19th-century origins.

These age-related characteristics are expected and do not significantly detract from the painting's overall appearance.

Aside from these minor age-related wear marks, the painting is in very good condition.

Period

19th Century

Antique ref: H. Stannava 19th Century Painting with rural village scenery