

A large Japanese Arita blue and white deep bowl and cover, late 17th century, Edo period

POA

A large Japanese Arita blue and white deep bowl and cover, late 17th century, Edo period, decorated in tones of underglaze blue to the body and domed lid with a continuous garden scene of peony and grasses issuing from rockwork between concentric blue bands, the foot and lid with bands of petals, the lid surmounted by a 'koma-inu' lion dog.

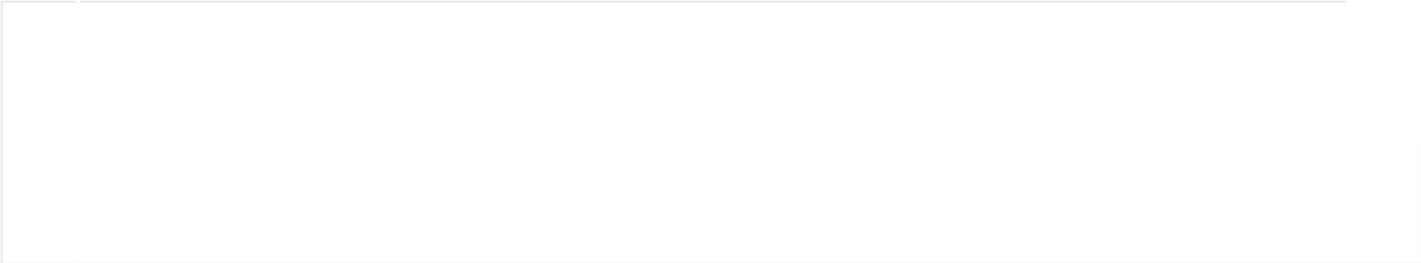

Condition: Some faults

Material and Technique

Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration

Origin

Japanese

Period	17th Century
Diameter	30cm. (11 3/4in.)

Antique ref: W883