

Chinese blanc de chine figure of a Guanyin and child, Kangxi (1662-1722)

POA

Chinese blanc de chine figure of a Guanyin and child, Kangxi (1662-1722), 17th century, the bodhisattva seated on a swirling rockwork base with a child on her lap, flanked by a vase and a book, attended by two acolytes at her feet with a writhing dragon in between, her tall chignon covered with a flowing mantle and her earlobes elongated

Dimensions:

Height: 24cm. (9 1/2in.)

Condition:

Chips to tip of fingers on Guanyin's right hand, small chips to dragon, child's head broken and re-stuck

Provenance:

From the collection of the Earls of Erne, Castle Crom, Co Fermanagh, sold by direction of The Rt. Hon Earl of Erne KCVO.

Material and Technique	Blanc de Chine moulded porcelain
Origin	Chinese
Dimensions	Height: 24cm. (9 1/2in.)

Antique ref: X185