

Chinese blue and white European market plate, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese blue and white European market plate, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated in the centre with a monogram above a laurel wreath and a love knot above, the border with a garland of fruiting passion flower, the reverse with two floral sprays to the rim and a central artemisia leaf within concentric circles

Dimensions:

Diameter: 27.1cm. (10 11/16in.)

Condition:

Frits to rim

Notes:

Whilst it is not known who commissioned this pattern, Jochem Kroes suggests that the plate may have been ordered by a married female due to the predominance of female imagery. For further information see Kroes, Jochem, 'Chinese Armorial Porcelain for the Dutch Market', p. 106, pl. 3.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Chinese
Diameter	27.1cm. (10 11/16in.)

Antique ref: Y771