

Chinese blue and white flask with chamfered edges, 18th century
POA

Chinese blue and white flask with chamfered edges, 18th century, decorated with alternating panels of a winding path through a rocky landscape with small houses and overhanging rockwork, and branches of chrysanthemum issuing from rockwork, against a cell diaper ground, the shoulders decorated with flower heads and a ruyi-head band around the thickened mouth rim

Dimensions:

Height: 27cm. (10 5/8in.)

Condition:

Incipient chip to base

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue design
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Height: 27cm. (10 5/8in.)

