

Chinese blue and white teabowl and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese blue and white teabowl and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722), with gently scalloped rims, the teabowl decorated inside and out with swirling panels containing floral boughs, the saucer rim with further panels decorated with flowers emerging from rockwork, around a central roundel containing flowerheads and leafy sprigs, the reverse with eight floral sprays and central stylised flowerhead mark

Dimensions:

Diameter: 13.5 cm. (5 3/8in.)

Condition:

Glaze faults

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Excellent
Diameter	13.5 cm. (5 3/8in.)

Antique ref: F949